

HYUNDAI SUNGWOOLITE

Press Release

Official Team Lineup for Solite Indigo Racing

- Josh Files and Kim Jin Soo set to compete for TCR Asia
- Lee Jae Woo, former head coach of Chevrolet Racing Korea, newly assigned as head coach

Seoul, Feb. 27, 2020 – Backed up with one of the strongest team lineup, Solite Indigo Racing outlined their desires for double titles in TCR Asia.

2019 TCR Europe champion Josh Files joins Solite Indigo racing, alongside with Kim Jin Soo, South Korea's rising star. While Lee Jae Woo, veteran drivers as well as former head coach of Chevrolet Racing Korea comes aboard to lead the team to victory as Head Coach.

Josh Files is currently one of the most noted TCR Drivers, by sweeping 4 drivers' titles, 25 round victories, and 46 podiums in the TCR series from 2016 to 2019. The British Driver having conquered TCR Germany, TCR Europe and TCR Middle East, now aims to win TCR Asia with the blue Veloster N TCR car. The recruit of a world class driver is expected to provide Solite Indigo Racing with immense knowledge in driving skills as well as valuable racing data.

Kim Jin Soo will once again compete in TCR Asia with the red Hyundai i30 N TCR. The Korean driver started his career at the age of eight as a kart racer, and joined Solite Indigo Racing in 2017. Having experienced the TCR Asia series in 2019, overall 6th and 3rd among Asian drivers, Kim will race strategically with Josh Files for a season full of champagnes.

As head coach, Jae Woo Lee will replace Roelof Bruins(Choi Myung Gil). The newly assigned head coach is known to have in-depth understanding of motorsports and touring cars, being the No.1 driver to have won the most races and pole positions in Korea from 1995 to 2017. Lee also possesses 12 years of experience as Head Coach, which will allow him to coordinate the team well.

Hyundai Sungwoo Daeseung Bldg.,
605, Bongeunsa-ro,
Gangnam-gu, Seoul, Republic of Korea

sungmin.ma@swa.co.kr
minyounghko@swa.co.kr

www.hdswsolite.co.kr

HYUNDAI SUNGWOOLITE

With the lineup all set, Solite Indigo Racing is to put their new teamwork to test in TCR Malaysia round 3 to 6 prior to their full season entrance in TCR Asia. The team will undergo intense training and testing to make sure they seize 2020 drivers' and teams' title in the upcoming TCR Asia season.

"It's a great honor to be recruited again by Solite Indigo Racing as head coach. My commitment and enthusiasm for motorsports has not changed one bit, compared to 14 years ago when I was a rookie driver for Indigo Racing," said Head Coach Lee Jae Woo. "With accurate analysis and communication with the new team, we will fight for victory and live up to our fans expectation."

Roelof Bruins, Drivers' Champion of 2019 Blancpain GT World Challenge Asia Series as well as former Solite Indigo Racing's Head Coach will continue his passion for motorsports by supporting the team's marketing business.

Having achieved the team's goal set out in 2018, the year in which the team entered overseas races for the first time, Solite Indigo Racing is to now expand their possibilities and vision in the global motorsports business with Bruins, while securing double titles with Josh, Jin Soo and Jae Woo.

A news cut and still images are available to download at:

http://www.hdsjournal.com/PressCenter/Photos/Detail?photo_seq=1

Content can also be viewed on our social media channels:

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/soliteindigo>

Instagram: <http://www.instagram.com/soliteindigo/>

Youtube: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCNedwQ4KVy3YtPHYlxbFzQ>

– End –

Hyundai Sungwoo Daeseung Bldg.,
605, Bongeunsa-ro,
Gangnam-gu, Seoul, Republic of Korea

sungmin.ma@swa.co.kr
minyounghko@swa.co.kr

www.hdswsolite.co.kr